

Enthusiastic Converts.

There Are Thousands of Them Who Believe as This Woman Does.

Mrs. Ira Knowlton, of Butte, Montana, is a most enthusiastic convert to the virtues of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets as a cure for obstinate stomach trouble. She says: "I had poor digestion nearly all my life. It now seems to me that for years I never knew what it was to be hungry, to have a good natural appetite. "I was troubled with gas in stomach, causing pressure on the heart with palpitation and short breath. Nearly everything I ate soured on my stomach. Sometimes I had cramps in the stomach which almost resembled spasms.

"Doctors told me I had catarrh of the stomach, but my medicines would not reach it and I would still be a sufferer had I not, in sheer desperation, decided to try Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

"I knew they were an advertised remedy and I didn't believe anything I read about them, as I had no confidence in advertised remedies, but my sister living in Pittsburgh wrote me last spring telling me how Stuart's Tablets had cured her little daughter of indigestion and loss of flesh and appetite and I hesitated no longer.

"I bought a six-cent box at my drug store and took two of the large tablets after each meal. I felt a pain of uneasiness in the stomach, being as pleasant to the taste as caramel candy. Whenever during the day or night I felt any pain or uneasiness in the stomach or about the heart I took one of the small tablets, and in three weeks it seemed to me as if I had never known what stomach trouble was.

"I keep Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in the house and every member of our family uses them occasionally after a hearty meal or when any of us have a pain or ache in the digestive organs.

"Mr. D. H. Davis of Hampton, Va., says: 'I doctored five years for dyspepsia, but in two months I got more benefit from Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets than in five years of the doctor's treatment.'

"Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, bloating after meals, sympathetic heart trouble.

"Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is not a cheap cathartic but an active digestive remedy containing the pepsin and diastase which every weak stomach lacks, and they cure stomach troubles because they digest the food eaten and give the weakened, overworked stomach a chance to rest and recuperate.

"Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold in every drug store in the United States, Canada and Great Britain.

SITE QUESTION STILL IN DOUBT.

Johnson and Comiskey May Close a Deal.

No definite progress was reported yesterday by President Ban Johnson of the American League, and Owner Charles Comiskey of the Chicago club, in their search for grounds for the St. Louis American League team.

Messrs. Johnson and Comiskey spent the day negotiating with local parties for the use of a good site in St. Louis, east of the city, but last night announced that no deal had been closed.

The two will remain in the city until tomorrow, and possibly longer, the length of their stay depending on their progress in the search for a suitable site. It is possible that a deal may be closed to-day, but neither expressed himself as hopeful of deciding the question before tomorrow.

TIGHT FINISHES AT DOUGLAS PARK.

Closing Day of the Meeting Marked by Good Racing and Defeat of the Favorites.

SALVE WAS AGAIN A WINNER.

Kindred Made a Runaway Race of the Opening—Lady of the West Won the Last Contest of the Day.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 16.—To-day was get-away day at Douglas Park, and the association offered its patrons one of the best cards of the meeting. The pick of the horses stabled here were entered in the different events, and, as a result, good contests resulted, the finishes in every one of them being exciting. Buckers of the favorites had a bad day of it, however, only one of the choices succeeding in getting home in front, Buccleuth, winner of the second race, saving them from a Waterloo.

The weather had moderated considerably and the attendance showed a marked increase over that of the day previous. Kindred proved something of a surprise by making a runaway affair of the first race. He had all the speed and was never in trouble at any part of it, winning handsily by a length from the favorite, Springwells. O'Neil, on Buccleuth, drew the finish line in the second race. Hayes' colt was an ill-to-2 favorite, and was heavily played at this short price. He outclassed his field, and had his rider wished, could have won further off.

Salve Won From Huttons.

Salve won his third consecutive race by beating a fair field in the third race. Daily had him under a pull until half the journey had been covered, when he went to the front without an effort, and at the finish was going easily. He won by a neck from Huttons.

Charitable was well in motion when the flag fell in the fourth race. She rushed out into the lead, and when once in front was never headed, winning at the end by a length from Charlie Thompson.

Lady of the West had to be hard ridden to capture the winning event from Prima II. The latter was a 3-to-5 favorite over her field.

Wind reached here to-day from Charleston that racing would begin there December 1, and would continue indefinitely. Five races will be run daily, and the association will distribute $1,000 in purses for the events.

The majority of the horses which have reached here will be shipped to participate, and a goodly number of jockeys have signified their intention of riding at the new track. Jockey Beauchamp has signed to ride for W. W. Darden the season of 1902 at a salary of $5,000, and the usual jockey fees.
